PLANNING AND ZONING COMMISSION

Chapter 28, Article I Sec. 28-4. - Adoption of General Statutes on planning and zoning; establishment of planning and zoning commission.

(c) Pursuant to the Charter as revised and the General Statutes, the commission on the city plan is hereby designated as the city's planning and zoning commission with all the powers and duties of both a planning commission and a zoning commission under the General Statutes. The planning and zoning commission hereby established supersedes the commission on the city plan as the city's planning commission and the council as the city's zoning commission.

(d) Said planning and zoning commission shall be comprised of seven (7) electors of the city, not counting nonvoting members who, pursuant to the Charter as revised, initially shall be the members of the commission on the city plan at the time of the establishment of the planning and zoning commission. Any rules of whatever nature governing the appointment, removal, terms, alternates, officers, records, meetings, and organization of the commission on the city plan in effect immediately prior to the establishment hereby of the planning and zoning commission shall continue in full force and effect and shall govern the planning and zoning commission, insofar as permitted by and not superseded by the General Statutes.

(a) The city does hereby adopt G.S. §§ 4-124i through 4-124p providing for the formation of a regional council of governments within a planning region, as defined or redefined by the director of the office of state planning. The city hereby joins the regional council of governments within its planning region when and as such council is duly established in accordance with G.S. 4-124i through 4-124p upon the adoption of such statute by not less than sixty (60) percent of all municipalities within such planning region.

(b) The representative of this city on the regional council shall be the mayor of this city. An alternate representative, when authorized, shall be a member of the court of common council, who shall be chosen by the court of common council. The representative of this city on the regional planning commission, as provided for in G.S. § 4-124o, shall be an elector of the city, who shall be a member of the commission on the city plan. Such representative shall be appointed by the commission on the city plan with the concurrence of the court of common council.

(c) The regional council of governments shall have such powers, purposes, duties and responsibilities as provided in G.S. § 4-124i through 4-124p.

Chapter 2, Article V, Division 6, Sec. 2-212. - Organization.

(a) Membership. The commission on addiction and public health shall consist of nine (9) members. The members shall be nominated by the mayor and confirmed by the council. The membership of the commission may include individuals with expertise and experience in addressing the issues associated with substance use, consumers of preventive services, members of the treatment and counseling communities, members of the law enforcement community, and citizens of communities impacted by the various issues associated with substance use. Members shall serve without compensation.

(b) Ad hoc members. Ad hoc commission members, or non-voting members, shall be permitted and encouraged. Ad hoc members shall be sought to assist in specific goals and/or projects of the commission without endowing other rights to them.

(c) Terms. Members shall serve for two-year terms. Of the members first appointed, four (4) shall be appointed for a term of two (2) years and five (5) members shall serve for a term of one (1) year. Each member shall serve for the term appointed until a successor is appointed and there shall be no limit on the number of terms that a member may serve. Up to three (3) members may be non-residents of Hartford. In the event of the death, disability or resignation of any member of the commission, a successor shall be nominated by the mayor and confirmed by the council to serve the unexpired period of the term for which such member had been appointed.
