The funds were targeted to assist with tenant security deposit of up to $3,000 and landlord incentive payments of $500. The first round was used for the 10 HCV Stability Voucher award, 20 HCV-holders participating in the COHHA Mobility effort and then an estimated 70 new admission HCV-holders seeking to secure housing as a new participant onto the HCV program. As of February 2025, the COHHA has changed the limit of the security deposit to $5,500 (the landlord incentive payment remains the same amount) and the initiative is now targeted to the following two groups: newly awarded HCV voucher holders and/or current HCV holders who are at or under the 50% AMI (very low-income level).
